MAY 1993

JOSEPH, OREGON MAY 22ND, 7:00 A.M.

LEAVE CBC PARKING LOT

Here we go again! A May "Mini Circle Tour" visiting historic Joseph, Oregon, May 22 & 23. We leave CBC Parking Lot, Pasco at 7: AM and arrive (hopefully) in Enterprise about noonish. We'll be staying at the Ponderosa Motel. (Single Queen Bed Room for 2 is $42. Two Queens for 2 is $44. Two Queens for 4 $52.) This is next to the best restaurant in town . . . Toma's.

We will be scheduled for a 2 hour Art Gallery and Foundry Tour at $3.50 a head if 20 or more, and $5.00 if 19 or less. Following that, there are many other things to do.: A Museum; Famous Dave Manuel's Art Gallery; Jillion Little Shops featuring antiques and crafts.

Wallowa Lake, only a mile away, can be visited and if enough interest, we can schedule a mini, mini tour around the area, late in afternoon on Sat., possibly another Sunday Morning. We would head for home in early afternoon.

I encourage all who think they want to go, to call The Ponderosa VERY SOON (503) 426-3186 and reserve a room (they only have 25). Please call Dave Underwood at 627-2820 by April 20th so we will have an idea how many to schedule for.

Again . . . call and make your own reservations - We've made ours. If you wait too long or they're full, there are two more in Enterprise: Wilderness Inn, (503) 426-4535; Melody Ranch (503) 426-4022.

SWAP MEET REPORT

Chairmans' report:

Head honcho Pete Jackson thanks all the volunteers who helped make this year's Swap meet the best yet, in spite of the rain. The individual chairmen also thank their devoted helpers who made it a success.

Rumor has it that two cars sold - a 41 Chevy Sedan first thing in a.m., and a yellow 1921 Olds Roadster left on a trailer reportedly delivered to Vern Shreve's House. Maybe this will be confirmed soon. Dave Underwood had lots of lookers on the 71 Eldo. Convertible, but he still has it-guess it was too cheap.

RICHLAND TORCHLITE PARADE

About six cars showed up and the parade started about 8:15. There was a terrific crowd, possibly the largest parade crowd I have seen. Everybody's lights worked long enough to get them home.

TREASURER'S REPORT

At the Swap Meet I presented all but four of the new green club jackets. I can still order more for those who missed ordering them. I distributed many of the name tags and rosters also. I will mail the unclaimed ones to you after May 15. (I'll be on vacation until then.)

We have four new families as members, the list is in this mailing.

The YOCC Grand Circle Tour 1993 is shaped up and those who have contacted me will get a detailed mailing about June 1. There will be approx. 15 cars going.
